

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

QUESTION PAPER

Note:

1. ★ Indicates an oral question.

Table of Contents

Deputy President.....28, 29

QUESTIONS FOR ORAL REPLY

THURSDAY, 25 MAY 2023

DEPUTY PRESIDENT

★7. Ms MME Tlhape (ANC) to ask the Deputy President:

- (1) What progress can the Government report in relation to land reform, in light of the fact that land reform is crucial for the economic transformation of the Republic, greater food security as well as the economic benefit of less dependence on imported food;
- (2) whether the land reform programme will be implemented with the appropriate financial and technical support for emerging farmers; if not, why not; if so, what are the relevant details?
NO2063E

★8. Ms S Gwarube (DA) to ask the Deputy President:

Whether, in the absence of an existing legislative framework to stabilise coalition governments and ensure the delivery of services, the Government will support the proposed suite of legislation (details furnished) that have been published for public comment, which is aimed at stabilising coalition governments, considering how service delivery has suffered in many metropolitan areas in the Republic due to the instability of some coalition governments; if not, what is the position in this regard; if so, what are the relevant details?
NO1958E

★9. Rev K R J Meshoe (ACDP) to ask the Deputy President:

- (1) In what way does his mandate as leader of the Republic's peace missions and the President's special envoy in South Sudan differ from that of a South African Ambassador in countries in conflict, such as South Sudan;

- (2) how does his role complement the work of the African Union and the United Nations to help bring about peace in times of conflict? NO1748E

★10. Mr X N Msimango (ANC) to ask the Deputy President:

What interventions is he undertaking to promote cohesion in various traditional kingdoms, in light of the killings of traditional leaders for various reasons such as the contestations for chieftaincy, land disputes, family disputes and taxi-related disputes, which have the capacity to undermine traditional leadership institutions and thereby threatening stability and development? NO1869E

★11. Mr B N Herron (Good) to ask the Deputy President:

Whether, considering that Uganda is on the precipice of creating a State where homophobia will be rampant and peaceful citizens could lose their lives as the President of Uganda, Mr Yoweri Museveni, is allegedly calling for much more severe punishment of members of the LGBTQIA community, he intends leading any peace missions to Uganda to protect human rights and maintain peace and stability in Uganda and on the continent; if not, what is the position in this regard; if so, what are the relevant details? NO1662E

★12. Mr D L Moela (ANC) to ask the Deputy President:

With reference to his delegated responsibility to promote social cohesion and in light of the role and centrality of the family, as a basic unit of society, whose disintegration could have a huge impact on the kind of society we wish to build, what initiatives will the Government undertake to revive the family as a basic unit in building a cohesive society? NO1868E