- (b) All provinces confirm availability on a weekly basis and replenishment is done, as per request.

There is sufficient buffer stock, which is kept on hand at the provisioning stores in Pretoria, Cape Town and KwaZulu-Natal, for a consistent supply of evidence collection kits.

Upon requisitioning, these kits will be distributed to Provincial Supply Chain Management offices, who further distribute to police stations, in accordance with station requirements as informed by crime statistics.

When police stations have no kits on hand, provinces must redistribute the kits to those stations, from other stations, where sufficient stock is available, to prevent kits from expiring.
