“Cargo Reports

8. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 7 and 12, the Commissioner may by rule prescribe requirements in respect of the report of cargo and may prescribe that—

- (a) any report including any manifest or other report listing and describing cargo carried by or loaded or to be loaded on to any ship[, aircraft, railway train] or [other] vehicle arriving at or departing from any place in the Republic, as the case may be; or
- (b) any outturn report or other report concerning goods landed from or unpacked from or packed into or loaded on to or to be packed into or to be loaded on to any such ship or [aircraft] vehicle, as the case may be; or
- (c) any outturn report or other report in respect of any imported goods received or unpacked while under the control of any person after landing thereof at any place [approved by the Commissioner] licensed in terms of this Act, shall be in such form containing such particulars and shall be submitted to the Controller by such person in such circumstances and at such times as may be specified in such rule.

(2) Where the Commissioner prescribes that any report must be submitted prior to cargo for export being packed into or loaded on to a ship or vehicle, no cargo shall be so packed or loaded before—

- (a) such report is received by the Controller; and
- (b) release of the cargo has been granted as prescribed in the rules.

(3) (a) Any such outturn report or other report shall reflect full particulars concerning any excess or deficiency in respect of any goods landed, received, unpacked, packed or loaded, as the case may be, according to any manifest or other report contemplated in subsection (1).

(b) Where any imported goods reported in any manifest or other report are not landed or—

- (i) any such goods not reported are landed; or
- (ii) any container or package is landed with visible evidence of tampering or any deficiency is suspected, any person completing any outturn report on landing of the goods shall examine and report on such goods in the presence of the carrier or the agent of the carrier, as may be prescribed by rule.

(4) (a) Any exporter who—

- (i) packs or loads cargo or causes cargo to be packed or loaded in contravention of subsection (2); or
- (ii) fails to report cargo or makes any false or misleading statement in connection with any report to which this section relates, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) Such cargo shall be liable to forfeiture in accordance with the provisions of this Act.”.

(2) Subsection (1) shall come into operation on a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.

“(3) Subsection (1), in so far as it relates to section 80S, shall come into operation when Part IIB of Chapter III of the Income Tax Act, 1962, comes into operation.”.

(2) Subsection (1) shall be deemed to have come into operation on 7 February 2007.

Repeal of section 13 of Act 21 of 2006

24. Section 13 of the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006, is hereby repealed.

Amendment of section 28 of Act 21 of 2006

25. Section 28 of the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006, is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) The following section is hereby inserted in the Customs and Excise Act, 1964, after section 64L:

‘Licensing of transit sheds

64M. (1) (a) Every transit shed shall be licensed in accordance with the provisions of section 60, this section, any applicable note in Schedule No. 8 and any rule relating to such licence.

(b) Application for such a licence shall be made on the prescribed form and shall be supported by the documents and information specified in such form and as the Commissioner may require from each applicant.

(c) Before any licence is issued the applicant for a licence must furnish security as contemplated in section 60(1)(c): Provided that the Commissioner may on good cause shown, to the extent considered reasonable in each case, reduce the amount of such security or exempt any person from furnishing security.

(d) Before commencing operations, or from a date thereafter specified by the Commissioner by rule, every transit shed operator shall register for the purposes of electronic communication as a user and enter into a user agreement in terms of section 101A and the rules made thereunder.

(2) (a) (i) Except if determined otherwise by rule, break bulk goods for export must be delivered to and exported from a transit shed or a combination terminal.

(ii) The transit shed operator shall—
(aa) be responsible for ensuring that goods for export are delivered to a combination terminal or are loaded on a ship or vehicle for export; and

- (bb) in addition to any liability for duty incurred by any person under any other provision of this Act, be liable for the duty on any goods received for export and such liability shall cease when it is proved that the goods have been delivered to a combination terminal or have been loaded on a ship or vehicle as contemplated in subparagraph (aa). 5
- (iii) The transit shed operator shall produce such proof to the Controller as may be prescribed by rule that the goods have been delivered to a combination terminal or have been loaded on a ship or vehicle for export.
- (iv) Goods received in a transit shed may not be opened or withdrawn therefrom without the permission of the Controller and in compliance with such procedures as may be prescribed by rule. 10
- (v) The receipt, storage and handling of goods in a transit shed shall be in accordance with the requirements that may be prescribed by rule.
- (b) Except where goods have been entered for home consumption and released thereafter or any other procedure is authorised by rule, the provisions of section 18 shall apply mutatis mutandis to any movement of any imported goods from a transit shed. 15
- (3) The Controller may require any break bulk goods to be detained in a transit shed for examination of the package or its contents, including by non-intrusive inspection methods contemplated in section 4(8A). 20
- (4) (a) The Commissioner may refuse an application for a transit shed licence or cancel or suspend such a licence.
- (b) The provisions of section 60(2) shall apply mutatis mutandis for the purposes of paragraph (a).
- (5) The Commissioner may prescribe by rule— 25
- (a) the security requirements regarding the premises, equipment of the transit shed and control measures to be observed in a transit shed;
- (b) any procedure or obligation in connection with packages received which are— 30
- (i) in excess of manifested quantities;
- (ii) unmanifested excess consolidated packings or packages;
- (iii) manifested but not received;
- (c) reports to be made and procedures to be followed relating to packages received with signs of damage, tampering or other discrepancy;
- (d) records to be kept in respect of the storage and movement of goods and any other activity in the operation of the transit shed; 35
- (e) all matters that are required or permitted in terms of this section to be prescribed by rule; and
- (f) any other matter which is necessary to prescribe and useful to achieve the efficient and effective administration of the activities of a transit shed.’ ’. 40

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE TAXATION LAWS SECOND AMENDMENT BILL, 2007

1. PURPOSE OF BILL

1.1 The Bill seeks to amend administrative provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962), the Customs and Excise Act, 1964 (Act No. 91 of 1964), the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991 (Act No. 89 of 1991), the Second Small Business Tax Amnesty and Taxation Laws Amendment Act, 2006 (Act No. 10 of 2006), and the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006 (Act No. 21 of 2006).

2. OBJECTS OF BILL

2.1 Amendment of section 3 of the Income Tax Act, 1962

The proposed amendment to section 3 provides that any decision of the Commissioner in the context of sections 30A, 44(13)(a) and 47(6)(c)(i) are subject to objection and appeal. In addition, the proposed amendment provides for the re-arrangement of section 3 to allow for easier reading thereof and makes other consequential amendments.

2.2 Amendment of section 10 of the Income Tax, 1962

The proposed amendment changes the focus of the proviso from plural to singular.

2.3 Amendment of section 11D of the Income Tax Act, 1962

The proposed amendments clarify that a taxpayer who is eligible for section 11D R&D deductions must submit information to the Department of Science and Technology within such time as may be required by that Department (even if that R&D is limited by virtue of section 11D).

Lastly, the proposal also clarifies the consequences of non-compliance in respect of the abovementioned requirements. This amendment also clarifies the consequences should an official of the Department of Science and Technology fail to take an oath of secrecy prior to carrying out the provisions of this section.

2.4 Amendment of section 76G of the Income Tax Act, 1962

The proposed amendment corrects a spelling error.

2.5 Amendment of section 79 of the Income Tax Act, 1962

Section 79(1) provides that the SARS may not issue an additional assessment if a previous assessment was made pursuant to the decision of the tax board or tax court, concession of an appeal, the resolution of a dispute in terms of the Alternative Dispute Resolution procedure or the settlement of a dispute. However, this cut off does not apply if the SARS is satisfied that any of the above was obtained by fraud, misrepresentation or non-disclosure of material facts. There is an argument that it is only in the specific case of a settlement obtained by means of fraud, misrepresentation or non disclosure that an additional assessment may be issued. The proposed amendment clarifies that the additional assessment may be issued in the case of any of the aforesaid decision, concession, resolution or settlement if obtained by such fraud, misrepresentation or non disclosure.

2.6 Amendment of section 80O of the Income Tax Act, 1962

Currently, there is an argument that reportable arrangements may be reported within 60 days of any payment in terms of that arrangement. This may lead to confusion where there is more than one payment involved. The proposed amendment clarifies that the reportable arrangements must be reported within 60 days of the first payment.

2.7 Amendment of section 80P of the Income Tax Act, 1962

The proposed amendment corrects punctuation.

2.8 Amendment of section 102 of the Income Tax Act, 1962

The proposed amendment provides that the SARS may refuse to refund any payment made by that person in terms of the Income Tax Act if that person has failed to furnish a return required by such Act, or if that person has not provided the SARS with the details of a banking account for the purpose of the refund.

2.9 Amendment of section 102A of the Income Tax Act, 1962

The proposed amendment will make provision for the SARS to determine the amount of employees' tax that may not be recovered or refunded if the amount of employees' tax withheld differs from the final liability.

2.10 Amendment of section 1 of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964

This is a textual amendment whereby the incorrect reference to section 106 is replaced by the correct reference to section 107 in the definition of "package".

2.11 Amendment of section 8 of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964

Section 8 deals with the submission of cargo reports. The proposed amendment now seeks to prohibit the packing or loading of the cargo into or onto a ship or vehicle for export before the Controller receives a cargo report and release has been granted. Provision is further made for appropriate penal provisions. The amendment will provide SARS with advance information on exports, which will be used for risk management purposes.

The proposed amendment to section 8 was contained in section 13 of the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006, but a part of the contents drafted was erroneously omitted. The complete amendment to section 8 is now contained in this clause while clause 24 repeals the said section 13.

2.12 Amendment of section 49 of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964

The proposed amendment of section 49 enables the Commissioner to make rules to give effect to those international agreements relating to customs administration that are not enacted into law as provided for in the section.

2.13 Amendment of section 15 of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991

The proposed amendment seeks to add persons to the list of persons that the Commissioner may direct to account for tax payable on the payments basis. The additional persons are water boards, other institutions that have similar powers to a water board, regional electricity distributors and municipal entities.

2.14 Amendment of section 20 of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991

The proposed amendment seeks to delete the second proviso to section 20(5). The first proviso to section 20(5) provides that an abridged tax invoice cannot be issued in respect of a zero-rated supply. The second proviso is therefore superfluous as the vendor is not allowed to issue an abridged tax invoice for a zero-rated supply.

2.15 Amendment of section 32 of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991

The proposed amendment seeks firstly to allow a vendor to object and appeal against the decision not to waive penalties and interest. It also seeks to make provision for the Commissioner, on receipt of an objection by a person, to alter or disallow a decision, direction or supplementary direction made in terms of section 50A(3) or (4) of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991, and to notify the person accordingly. The proposed amendment lastly seeks to make any decision, direction, supplementary direction, or altered decision, direction, supplementary direction or assessment, made by the Commissioner final and conclusive, where no objection has been lodged or the objection has been allowed in full or withdrawn.

2.16 Amendment of section 41 of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991

The proposed amendment provides that the provisions of sections 41(a), (b) or (c) of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991, will not apply to any written decision issued by the Commissioner on or after 1 January 2007. In addition, those provisions will not apply to rulings issued by the Commissioner prior to 1 January 2007 in respect of supplies which are or will be made or goods imported on or after 1 January 2007. The Commissioner may, however, prescribe that a written decision issued prior to 1 January 2007 may have binding effect where the Commissioner informs the person in writing of such binding effect or the period of such binding effect. This binding status will be in terms of section 41A or 41B. The procedure and process applicable to this is set out in binding general ruling (VAT) No. 2 which is available on the SARS website (www.sars.gov.za). A person who has received a written decision in respect of any contractual obligation incurred by that person may rely on that written decision until the written decision has been withdrawn.

2.17 Insertion of section 41B of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991

The proposed amendment allows the Commissioner to issue binding “VAT class rulings” or “VAT rulings”. A “VAT class ruling” or “VAT ruling” is a written statement by the Commissioner in respect of an application or interpretation of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991. The proposed amendment further seeks to ensure that the provisions and procedural requirements applicable to “advance tax rulings” catered for in the Income Tax Act will apply mutatis mutandis. A “VAT class ruling” will be issued under the provisions and procedural requirements of “binding class rulings” whereas a “VAT ruling” will be issued under the provisions and procedural requirements of “binding private rulings”. The “VAT class rulings” and “VAT rulings” will not be subject to any fees as envisaged in the Income Tax legislation governing “advance tax rulings”. In addition, the applicant for a “VAT class ruling” or “VAT ruling” must consent to the publication of such ruling. Failure to provide the Commissioner with the consent to publish such ruling will result in the Commissioner not issuing the requested ruling. In terms of the proposed amendment, the Commissioner will only be required to publish decisions that set a new precedent.

The proposed amendment provides that advance tax rulings will not be dealt with under section 41B where the Minister issues a regulation to exclude certain types of rulings from section 41B. As a result, these applications will be dealt with under the advance tax rulings provisions referred to in section 41A of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991.

2.18 Amendment of section 55 of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991

The proposed amendment seeks to allow vendors to retain paid cheques in electronic form by way of scanned images. The original cheques need to be retained for one year, while the scanned images thereof must be retained for five years. This amendment will align the provisions with those in section 73A of the Income Tax Act.

2.19 Amendment of section 16 of the Tax on Retirement Funds Act, 1996

The proposed amendment provides that the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1962, which relate to the settlement of disputes shall apply to the Tax on Retirement Funds Act, 1996.

2.20 Insertion of section 11A of the Small Business Tax Amnesty and Amendment of Taxation Laws Act, 2006

The concern has been raised that there are circumstances where a strict reading of the income tax legislation could result in the taxation of relief granted in terms of the small business amnesty legislation. This was not the intention.

Section 9A(1) provides an explicit income tax exemption and capital gains exclusion in respect of small business amnesty relief in terms of section 8, while section 9A(3) provides an explicit capital gains exclusion in respect of the waiver of additional tax, penalty or interest in terms of section 13 and its associated regulations. Equally, however, successful amnesty applicants should not be permitted to abuse these provisions by attempting to deduct third party claims relating to the exempt or excluded amounts or by restating returns. Sections 9A(3) and 11A give effect to these matching anti-abuse measures.

2.21 Amendment of section 2A of the Second Small Business Tax Amnesty and Amendment of Taxation Laws Act, 2006

The proposed amendment corrects a spelling error.

2.22 Amendment of the long title to the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006

The proposed amendment seeks to amend the long title to the Revenue Laws Amendment Act, 2006.

2.23 Amendment of section 2 of the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006

The proposed amendment aligns the dates from which a person may object and appeal against a decision taken in terms of a newly introduced provision with the date on which that provision takes effect.

2.24 Repeal of section 13 of the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006

Section 13 is proposed to be repealed in view of the amendment proposed to section 8 of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964.

2.25 Amendment of section 28 of the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006

These are proposed technical amendments to include a word that was omitted and to amend a provision relating to the movement of goods from a transit shed.

2.26 Repeal of section 37 of the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006

The proposed amendment is a technical correction. See proposed amendment of section 15 of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991.

2.27 Repeal of section 39 of the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006

The proposed amendment is a technical correction. See proposed amendment to section 41 of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991.

2.28 Repeal of section 40 of the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006

The proposed amendment is a technical correction. See proposed amendment to section 41B of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991.

2.29 Amendment of section 43 of the Revenue Laws Second Amendment Act, 2006

This is a proposed technical amendment to rectify a typographical error by changing an incorrect reference.

3. CONSULTATION

The amendments proposed by this Bill were published on the National Treasury and SARS websites for public comment. Comments by interested parties were considered. Accordingly, the general public and institutions at large were consulted in preparing the Bill.

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

An account of the financial implications to the State was given in the 2007 Budget Review.

5. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

5.1 The State Law Advisers and the National Treasury are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.

5.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act. No. 41 of 2003), since it contains no provision pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
