Parliamentarians from each of the IBSA countries met to discuss the opportunities which this dimension of IBSA presents to parliaments. Specific areas of cooperation that were highlighted by the Parliamentary Forum are the following:

- The exchange of information regarding parliamentary processes and systems in order to learn from each other.
- An IBSA Parliamentarian Forum could be used to collectively canvass for positions of common global interests and could even advance IBSA positions during their interactions with their Parliamentary counterparts in other countries.
- To solidify interactions between the three countries through further deepening people-to-people relations.
- Cooperation in the Legislative Dimensions of the IBSA countries is vital for the success of IBSA as a Tri-lateral Developmental Initiative.

1.5.5 Civil Society Seminar (12-15 October 2007)

1.6. The main 2nd IBSA Summit event:

During the main event which took place on 17 October 2007 in Tshwane, the Heads of State received reports from Academia, the Women’s Forum, Parliamentarians and Civil Society. The Heads of State/ Government also met with the IBSA Business Council where the Business Council Declaration was presented. Business representatives were afforded the opportunity to discuss matters pertaining to the facilitation of business between the IBSA partners.

During the government-to-government discussions, President Lula da Silva of Brazil raised issues around the World Trade Organization Doha Round negotiations. The leaders agreed that this Round was critical for the developing world and that agriculture remains the key to the conclusion of the Round. They also agreed that developing countries should continue to strengthen their engagement and cooperation to ensure that the outcomes of the negotiations are fair and equitable.

Prime Minister Manmohan Singh of India raised the issue of an Integrated IBSA Social Development Strategy. The leaders recognised that the IBSA countries share many similarities and challenges in the area of social development. They discussed the creation of an Integrated IBSA Social Development Strategy that would be developed around a framework which includes the following points:

- The need for rapid economic growth
- Inclusivity
- Human Resource Dimension
- Equitable infrastructure
- Short term distress mitigation
- Grass roots institution building
- Environmentally friendly growth strategy
- Integration into knowledge economy

It was agreed that the Strategy would be finalized prior to the 3rd IBSA Summit.

In addition, two new Working Groups were established in the areas of Climate Change and Environment; and Human Settlement Development. The leaders also took note of the Coal-to-Liquid and Gas-to-Liquid (CTL/GTL) Seminar, as well as the seminar on Standards and Technical Regulations and Conformity Assessment, which were held on the sidelines of the Summit.

2. Challenges
2.1 Lack of efficient cooperation in certain sectors, e.g. tourism, health, climate change, transport (aviation and maritime): Differences in approach by IBSA countries
2.2 Management of additional Working Groups: Deepening of cooperation within existing Working Groups to be prioritised before widening
2.3 To encourage effective participation within the parameters of IBSA by non-government actors on a people-to-people level
2.4 The way forward: Expansion of membership to strengthen the "Voice of the South" vs "Absorption/ co-option/ joining forces with G-8 (G-13/North)

3. Strategic issues
3.1 Consideration/ deliberation at HoS/G level on the advantages and disadvantages of the following options:
3.1.1 Expansion of IBSA membership to strengthen the "Voice of the South"
3.1.2 Absorption/ co-option/ joining forces with the G-8/ (G-13) North
3.2 The IBSA Forum was focussed on concrete deliverables which would affect the lives of the citizens of the respective countries at grass roots level. In light of this, much emphasis is placed on the work done and progress made by the Sectoral Working Groups. The Heads of State/Government thus instructed that all Working Groups should complete a cycle of meetings prior to the 3rd IBSA Summit;
3.3 IBSA is gaining momentum in the communities of the partner countries which was evident through the way in which different aspects of civil society, such as women, parliamentarians and civil society organisations were becoming deeply involved in the IBSA process. It needs to be ensured that the people-to-people Forums remain effectively engaged in the IBSA processes and to encourage them to execute all commitments and joint initiatives prior to the 3rd IBSA Summit in New Delhi in 2008.

3.4 The Heads of State/Government agreed that the IBSA Dialogue Forum needs to be used more effectively as a platform for the partner countries to further consolidate their positions on global issues to further strengthen the voice of the South and developing countries in international fora;

3.5 The role which IBSA is playing in international fora is becoming increasingly interesting to the international community, which is closely monitoring the activities in IBSA.

3.6 The governments of the IBSA countries are committed to the success of IBSA and wish to enhance cooperation between the three countries, which is evident when considering the proposals to consider/investigate the creation of an additional 6 Working Groups in the areas of Local Government, Water Affairs/Forestry, Correctional Services, Public Works, Home Affairs; and Labour.

3.7 To pursue creating a conducive environment for trilateral private sector MOUs/Agreements, for example in between:
   - Shipping corporations (Maritime)
   - ICT/Micro-Chip Companies
   - Other Business-to-Business initiatives

3.8 The management of the IBSA Poverty and Hunger Alleviation Fund needs to be enhanced and the newly proposed projects need to be implemented:
   - Asia: Timor-Leste & Laos (capacity building)
   - Africa: Burundi (HIV-Aids assistance) & Cape Verde (renovation of community centre)
   - Palestine: Capacity Building

4. Conclusion

The delegation was satisfied with the progression of the Summit and particularly thrilled that the Parliamentary forum was able to meet and propose way forward. The parliamentary forum hoped to meet again to determine time frames as well as modus operandi in an attempt to ensure full operation of the forum.

Signed on behalf of the Committee
