BRIEF SUMMARY

I was admitted as an advocate of the High Court on 25 March 1999, after I completed LLB with UNISA in 1998. Before then, I had obtained B.A. (Ed) from the University of the North in 1991, and became a teacher from 1992 until my resignation in June 1999 after I was admitted as an advocate. I did pupillage at the Johannesburg Bar from July 1999 and became a full member of the Johannesburg Bar from December 1999 to date. In 2000, I went to the Netherlands where I studied LLM in International Business Law which I completed in six months. I returned to South Africa in July 2000 to commence my legal practice as an advocate. In 2002 I went to New York City in the United States of America where I was a foreign Intern in a law firm called, Cravath Swine and More. I returned in January 2003 to continue with my legal practice to date as a member of the Johannesburg Bar.

I have now ten years of legal experience as an advocate in private practice. My major clients are government departments, parastatals and some corporations. I specialise in litigation and provision of opinions and drafting pleadings in contracts, administrative law, labour, pensions, environmental and planning law, commercial law, taxation, regulatory law and broadcasting law.
