a MILITARY OMBUDSMAN BILL [89-201] ATTENTION Mandy Balie,

The most interesting point in the SANDF is the interest and uplifting of the soldiers

- 1, His intake as a soldier
 - 2, His Education
 - 3, His background
 - 4, His family and friends
 - 5, His development
 - 6, His marriage
 - 7, His money education
 - 8, His family ties, insurance, burial society and religion.
- * From the cradle till the grave.

b, A a soldier, a veteran and a civilian - I joined in 5-8-1974 and trained with the other soldiers and these soldiers had nominate me as their father. I started recruitment after qualifying my administration with distinction in 1976. The following intake was in 1977 where I started developing night schools in 21571 Bn in Lenz and looked after the welfare of neatness of the soldiers as well as table manners, sports, body building and swimming in a pool. Golf is my beloved sport. I went on recruiting 1978 1979 1980 1981 1982 '8: I was transferred to Transport depot - Bookstore - Back to the kitchens where Blacks and White needed somebody like who knew the black and white culture. I have a strong background of good discipline. I come from three chiefs kraals i.e. Chief Mohale - Sekgopo; Chief Pheeta - Zoekmekkar - Chief Seleka - Ga Seleka - Lephalele - I am Mohlabya Seleka sa Mohlasedi se baka kyupuna ya juula le ba Bokomani, I worked with money from 1976 till 1993 in the canteen without shortage. I was pensioned in 1993 and came back in the kitchen in 1995 till 1998. The boys want me back. They want KFC and Nandos. I chose stamp mixed with beans. I do add some ching peas, sorghum beans, jugo beans + chicken sliced meat and chicken spice, hmmm nice. THE INTEREST OF THE SOLDIERS.

PTO

May you consider my points under oath!

Yours Mr LETSHOLO EDWARD MOHLABYA
