PREAMBLE

WHEREAS many people in South Africa continue to live and work in places defined and influenced by past spatial planning and land use laws and practices which were based on racial inequality and segregation and unsustainable settlement patterns;

AND WHEREAS the continued existence and operation of multiple laws at national and provincial spheres of government in addition to the laws applicable in the previous homelands and self-governing territories has created fragmentation, duplication and unfair discrimination;

AND WHEREAS parts of our urban and rural areas currently do not have any applicable spatial planning and land use management legislation and are therefore excluded from the benefits of spatial development planning and land use management systems;

AND WHEREAS various laws governing land use give rise to uncertainty about the status of municipal spatial planning and land use management systems and procedures and frustrates the achievement of cooperative governance and the promotion of public interest;

AND WHEREAS informal and traditional land use development processes are poorly integrated into formal systems of spatial planning and land use management;
AND WHEREAS spatial planning is insufficiently underpinned and supported by infrastructural investment;

AND WHEREAS it is the state’s obligation to realise the constitutional promises in:

- Section 25(5) of the Constitution, to take measures designed to foster conditions that enable citizens to gain access to land on an equitable basis; and
- Section 26 of the Constitution, to have the right to adequate access to housing which includes an equitable spatial pattern and sustainable human settlements;

AND WHEREAS the state must respect, protect, promote and fulfil the social, economic and environmental rights of everyone and strive to meet the basic needs of previously disadvantaged communities;

AND WHEREAS sustainable development of land requires the integration of social, economic and environmental considerations in both forward planning and ongoing land use management to ensure that development of land serves present and future generations;
AND WHEREAS regional planning and development, urban and rural development and housing are functional areas of concurrent national and provincial legislative competence;

AND WHEREAS provincial planning is within the functional areas of exclusive provincial legislative competence, and municipal planning is primarily the executive function of the local sphere of government;

AND WHEREAS it is necessary that—

• a uniform, recognisable and comprehensive system of spatial planning and land use management be established throughout the country to maintain economic unity and equal opportunity or equal access to government services;
